

Welcome to Copenhagen 29 August 2014

Young Arbitrators Sweden (YAS) and Young Arbitrators Copenhagen (YAC) are happy to invite you to a joint seminar on Friday 29 August 2014 between 16:00-17:30, followed by drinks and informal dinner and then, for those who wish to join, the evening will continue in various bars in lovely Copenhagen.

The main purpose of the seminar is to get to know each other better and to discuss similarities and differences with respect to practical issues in Danish and Swedish arbitration proceedings. The seminar is free of charge.

Topics and speakers are;

- 1) Objections against arbitrators (Henrik Gisløv, The Danish Institute of Arbitration & Kristoffer Löf, Mannheimer Swartling, Stockholm)
- 2) Hearing of witnesses and use of written witness statements (Niels Schiersing, HORTEN, Copenhagen & Rikard Wikström, White & Case, Stockholm)
- 3) Written pleadings and the use of summary statements and recitals etc. (Julie Arnth Jørgensen, Bruun og Hjejle, Copenhagen & Cecilia Eneheim Iveberg, MAQS, Malmö)

When: Friday 29 August 2014, at 16:00

Where: HORTEN law firm, Philip Heymans Allé 7, Copenhagen

Registration: Please register by sending an e-mail to lkp@lett.dk by 22 August 2014. Spaces are limited. In case of oversubscription, paying members (company members and personal members) will be given priority.

Welcome and see you in Copenhagen!

Young Arbitrators Sweden and Young Arbitrators Copenhagen

Young Arbitrators Sweden

*The SCC association Young Arbitrators Sweden (YAS) aims to increase knowledge and interest amongst practitioners under the age of 45 in the field of international arbitration.
See www.sccinstitute.se.*

Young Arbitrators Copenhagen

*Young Arbitrators Copenhagen (YAC) aims to increase interest and knowledge amongst practitioners under the age of 40 in the field of international arbitration.
See www.yac.dk.*