What Can We Learn from Each Other?

Helsinki, Finland, 27 May 2015

Young Arbitration Club Finland, Young Arbitrators Copenhagen and Young Arbitrators Sweden have the pleasure of inviting you to Helsinki, Finland to take part in our first joint event taking place on 27 May 2015.

Around the world, arbitration institutes are revising their rules and governments are reforming their arbitration laws at an ever-increasing pace. Also in the Nordic jurisdictions, many of our arbitration rules and laws have either been modernized recently or are currently undergoing changes. Our all-Nordic panel will address these past and upcoming reforms in our jurisdictions, and explore what we can learn from each others' experiences.

The speakers on our panel include Kristin Campbell-Wilson (The Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce, Stockholm), Henrik Gisløv (The Danish Institute of Arbitration, Copenhagen), Aapo Saarikivi (Roschier, Helsinki) and Kaare Andreas Shetelig (Wikborg Rein, Oslo). The panel discussion will be moderated by Teemu Taxell (Lindfors & Co, Helsinki) and Peter Fauerholdt Thommesen (Viltoft, Copenhagen).

The substantive program will be followed by drinks and mingling in an informal setting.
